The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever; and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been various. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process, by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A [illegible] "Conservative" suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

Conservative State Executive Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR

HON. THOS. S. ASHE,

OF ANSON.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,

COL. EDWARD D. HALL,

OF NEW HANOVER.

THE MILITIA UNDER THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

By the 12th Article, entitled "the Militia," all citizens of the State, who are citizens of the United States, between the ages of 21 and 40, are required to perform Militia duty, except those citizens who claim exemption because of their religious scruples. Every negro man, as well as every white man, is required to do militia duty. The Legislature is empowered to enrol them in companies, &c., to arm and equip them, and to prescribe the necessary regulations for the government of the militia. The Governor is also authorized to call out the militia to suppress riots, to preserve order, or to repel invasion and put down insurrection, and the militia are to be paid while in actual service.

We beg the attention of the reader to two points in this matter:

First, The Convention refused to say that negroes and whites shall be enrolled in separate companies, or that there should be distinct regiments for each. The Constitution, of set purpose by its framers, makes no distinction of race or color between white and black. So far from it, it positively declares that the two races are equal in ALL respects. Can the Legislature order, therefore, that the whites and blacks shall be enrolled in separate Companies? It certainly cannot. Such a law would be unconstitutional, and therefore void. But suppose the County officials were determined, in spite of the Constitution, to enrol the blacks and whites in separate Companies. This might be done in the Eastern and Middle Counties, if the blacks chose to submit quietly to it; but every one knows that, under the new Constitution, they would have the right to insist upon being enrolled in the same Companies with the whites, and to be placed in the same regiments; and if they had the majority, they could elect negro officers to command the Companies, &c. But in the West, where there are few negroes, some Counties could not raise a Company, much less a Regiment, of blacks? If the blacks in those Counties are required to do militia duty, where are they to be enrolled, except among the whites? It is clear, therefore, that THAT was the purpose of the framers of the Constitution.

Secondly, Should the new Constitution be adopted, and the State admitted by Congress, the Federal troops would be removed from the State, unless the Legislature or the Governor requested their continuance to preserve order. But the advocates of reconstruction on the Congressional plan want to get rid of the "blue coats" Mr. Holden, only since he became a Radical, has become a great admirer of Brownlow. He calls him "that glorious old patriot," and admires very much his loyal government and his loyal militia. A few weeks ago, Mr Holden said, in his paper, that as soon as the State was reconstructed, the "blue coats" would leave, and then order would be preserved by our "loyal militia." It is plain, therefore, if Mr. Holden were elected Governor, as soon as he could get the militia organized and equipped, he would call out twenty or thirty thousand of the "loyal militia," blacks and scalawags, to preserve order! How many white men in North Carolina would prefer to get rid of the "blue coats," who are paid by the Federal government, and to have from ten to thirty thousand "loyal militia" quartered upon us, blacks and whites, at our own expense! Brownlow's militia costs Tennessee about $300,000 annually Are our people willing to swap the few "blue coats" we have in the State for Holden's "loyal militia," at a cost of $300,000 a year to our own pockets? Think of it, and VOTE AGAINST THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

CANDIDATES.

We are gratified to see that our friends in the various counties are bringing out their strongest men for the Legislature,—men who will canvass against the odious Constitution and canvass effectively.

In New Hanover, the Conservatives have nominated the following ticket: For the Senate, William T. Emmett; For the House, Duncan J. Devane, Chas. W. McClammy and Jno. D. Powers.

In Granville, the following admirable ticket has been nominated, viz: For the Senate, Willis H. Jenkins; For the House, James S. Amis, Dr. William R. Hicks and George J. Rowland.

ARKANSAS DEFEATS THE CONSTITUTION.—The people of Arkansas, with only 15 or 20,000 majority of whites in that State, have nobly defeated, at the polls, by a direct vote, the odious new Constitution, attempted to be fastened upon them by the Radicals, by about 15,000 majority. Cannot North Carolina, by a larger majority defeat the new Constitution now attempted to be forced upon the white people of the State by the black vote, when we have a majority of over 30,000 white votes in the State? Let us do it and do it grandly!

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

THOUGHTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

(No. 5.)

A FAMILIAR CONVERSATION ON THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

RADICAL.—Good morning, neighbor Joe—have you seen the new Constitution?

CONSERVATIVE—Oh! yes.

RADICAL—Well, it is pretty good under the circumstances, ain't it?

CONSERVATIVE—Well, I have read the Constitution carefully; indeed, I have studied all of its most important provisions, and I have come to a different conclusion. It is no more like the old Constitution, handed down to us by those firm old patriots, Gaston and Macon, than Turner's Almanac is like the Bible.

RADICAL—Oh! Pshaw! you are prejudiced against the framers of the new Constitution—you don't like Holden, Ashley, Mc Donald, Tourgee, and the other members who had most to do with fixing it up; and, for this reason, you go against the Constitution.

CONSERVATIVE—No, my friend, you are mistaken. It is true, I have neither fancy nor use for the men you named and I should receive with far less hesitation a Constitution made by such men as Graham, Worth, Bragg, Eaton, Ashe, Shepherd and the like, than from the hands of these men you name—and, hence, I have given the new Constitution a more thorough and critical examination than if the last named gentlemen had had the making of it.

RADICAL—Well, what is there in it that you don't like?

CONSERVATIVE—There is a great deal in it which I don't like—but much more out of it, which I would have in it. Upon this point I have the most decided objections to it—and, I am sure, neighbor John, you cannot have considered this matter well to be in favor of it.

RADICAL.—You talk as if you have studied and thought over this matter more than I have. I have read carefully the printed Constitution, and I find in it nothing particular to find fault with—but, I confess, I have not thought about what was out of it which ought to be in it. What is there in it you object to?

CONSERVATIVE—In the first place, this Constitution increases immensely the taxes which our impoverished people have to raise, by multiplying the number of offices with heavy salaries. Should this Constitution be adopted, we shall have six more Judges and a Superintendent of Public Works, a Superintendent of Public Instruction, a Superintendent of the Penitentiary, an Attorney General, a Lieutenant Governor, and dozens of other offices and commissions, heretofore unknown to our laws, for all of whom large salaries are to be provided; so that the increased annual expenses of the State officers will not amount to a less sum than $100,000, or more,—a sum, of itself, sufficiently large, exclusive of Asylums, to pay the expenses of the present State Administration. If those new offices were necessary to the due administration of the government, nothing could be said against it. But the reverse is true, and they have been created for no other purpose than to provide for such irresponsible "adventurers" as Menninger, Ashley, Tourgee, and the numerous families of Frenches, and the like, who, now that "bumming" has ceased, are to be made high officials of by negro votes.

RADICAL.—But, these offices are necessary to the proper carrying on of the government, and cannot well be dispensed with.

CONSERVATIVE.—Could not eight Judges ride the circuits, as well as twelve?—and could not three Supreme Court Judges have done better than five? Have not three Supreme Court Judges, and eight Superior Court Judges, heretofore discharged their duties, and fully maintained the judicial character of the State?

RADICAL.—I confess that, in the main, the Judiciary has done well enough.

CONSERVATIVE.—Well, my friend, it is best to "let well enough alone," especially when not to let it alone is to cost the already impoverished people of the State the sum of fifteen or eighteen thousand dollars every year.

RADICAL.—In the matter of the Judges, I think it would have been better to let the old Constitution stand as it was. But it should be our first duty to get back into the Union.

CONSERVATIVE.—That is the general argument of your party friends. We are already in the Union, never having been out of it. I set out to tell what I thought was in the Constitution, which should impose upon us the absolute duty of rejecting that document at the coming election. The most objectionable—I might say, the most infamous—feature of this new Constitution, is that which makes it obligatory upon the Legislature to levy a tax, at the present time, and in the present crippled and impoverished condition of our people, to pay the annual interest on the State's indebtedness.

RADICAL.—You are not in favor of Repudiation, are you?

CONSERVATIVE.—No, Sir, I am far from it, and this feature of the new Constitution will do more towards making our people repudiate than all the legislation which has been done in twenty years, not excepting the secession of the State, and its defeat. Our own Courts are closed against the citizens of the State by this very Constitution, while Northern creditors are allowed to collect their debts in the Federal Courts, and, in doing so, to sell your roof from over the heads of your wife and children. And, while such is our situation, this Constitution declares that these people, (whose lands, and whose ALL, are to be taken from them by these Northern "Shylocks,") shall be taxed to the tune of $1,200,000 a year to pay interest on the State debt, which is almost entirely in the hands of these Northern men. It is an outrage, a villainous outrage upon the poor tax payers, who can now hardly make a support for their families.

RADICAL.—But, my dear Sir, you say you are not in favor of Repudiation. Then what do you propose to do, when you object to paying only the interest on what the State owes?

CONSERVATIVE.—I will tell you. I would tell these Northern bondholders that the debt is a just and honest one—that we will pay it, but not before we are admitted to our rights in the Union, and labor shall become regulated, order restored, industry revived, and the wealth and prosperity of the good old days shall return to bless us and our good old North Carolina. The bond holder is rich—we are poor. He can afford to wait without injury to him or his.

RADICAL.—You are making a strong case for your side, but, still, you have not paid what you owe.

CONSERVATIVE.—That is true; but we are going to pay it. When an honest man is unable to pay an honest debt, all that can be required of him, morally or legally, is to acknowledge the debt, and promise to pay it, when he has the ability to pay it.

RADICAL.—Our State debt is not over fifteen millions of dollars, and we ought to be able to pay the interest on that amount.

CONSERVATIVE.—I grant you that we ought to be able; but we are not. Besides, this is not all we have to pay. Let us look at this matter as it is, and without party prejudice. The State debt, by the end of the present year, will not be less than $19,000,000. The interest on this sum, at 6 per cent, amounts to $1,140,000. Under the new Constitution, we shall have to raise not less than $500,000 for the purpose of carrying on the public Schools. This makes the sum amount to $1,640,000. Then, we have to raise a tax to support the State Government, which, since the increase of the number of Judges and other high salaried officers, by the new Constitution, will not amount to less than $300,000. This brings it up to the snug sum of $1,940,000. But this sum, even, does not begin to be all.—The new Constitution requires work-houses, &c., to be constructed, and the county taxes will not amount to a less sum than $600,000. This brings our taxes, for State and County purposes, up to the enormous sum of $2,540,000! In addition to this, the Federal tax will not be less than $1,500,000!—So, it is reduced to an absolute certainty that, under the proposed Constitution, the people, poor as they are, will have to raise each year, in the way of public taxes, the stupendous, the unreasonable, and infamous sum of over FOUR MILLIONS OF DOLLARS!!—and the greater portion of this sum is to go into the pockets of Northern "Shylocks" and brokers.

RADICAL.—There must be some mistake about this, for our people cannot pay one tenth of this sum. You are mistaken.

CONSERVATIVE—I do not give you my word for it. I give you the figures. There cannot be any mistake, for "figures do not lie."

RADICAL.—Why, sir, our people could not raise this amount of money, if their individual lives depended upon it.

CONSERVATIVE—That may be true,—and that fact only makes the necessity to defeat the Constitution the more urgent and obligatory upon the people. The truth is, this proposed Constitution, in a financial point of view, is an absurdity; for it requires that to be done which is impossible to be done. Four millions of taxes could not be collected out of the people of North Carolina, without forcing three-fourths of the landed property of the people under the auctioneer's hammer The legislators who framed such a requirement were either idiots or knaves, and the people will so find out when they shall have ratified it.

RADICAL.—I confess, these figures rather surprise me. You said awhile ago that you had as much objection to what was not in the proposed Constitution, as you had to that which was in it. What is there out of it, which ought to be in it?

CONSERVATIVE.—In the first place, I would have placed in the Constitution a clause compelling the Legislature to provide separate schools for the education of white and negro children, to prevent my children from being placed upon an equal footing with negroes.

RADICAL.—The Constitution does not require them to be educated in the same schools.

CONSERVATIVE.—But the action of the Convention meant this, if it meant anything. When the subject was being considered by the body, it was moved that separate schools should be provided for the two races, and the motion was almost unanimously voted down—and that, too, when they had put a clause in the Constitution compelling children, whose parents are unable to educate them, to send them at least 16 months to the public schools—thus forcing the children of poor white men to associate with negro children on terms of equality.

RADICAL.—To be sure, the Convention did not do this?

CONSERVATIVE.—The records of the Convention show this to be true. And besides this outrage upon the white children of the State, the Convention refused to forbid the enrolment of whites and blacks in the same companies and regiments of militia, and carried its infamy to the extent that it refused to forbid the mustering of white men under negro officers.

RADICAL.—I would suffer myself to be hanged before I would be mustered by any negro.

CONSERVATIVE.—That's the way your party all talk, but you act differently—and your acts lead inevitably to social equality with the negro, and to the very result for which you exhibit such aversion. But this is not all. It was proposed to insert in the Constitution a provision forever forbidding the inter-marriage of whites and blacks, and this proposition WAS VOTED DOWN.—The Convention not only did this, but actually passed an ordinance legalizing marriages of whites and blacks!!

RADICAL.—This cannot be true. If I believed the Convention had perpetrated such an outrage upon the white race as that, I would vote against a Constitution framed by such traitors to their race and country.

CONSERVATIVE.—The record can be produced to prove it. But, my dear sir, the Convention not only did this, but it absolutely voted down a proposition forbidding that a WHITE CHILD should ever be bound out, as an apprentice, to a NEGRO MASTER—and should this Constitution be adopted by the people of North Carolina, your children may be bound out to one of your former slaves. The truth is, in the Eastern Counties, where the negroes are largely in the majority, under the system of election by the people of all the subordinate officers, which is incorporated in the Constitution, there will be a majority of Justices of the negro race, and it is not only probable, but certain, that poor white children, whose parents are dead, will be turned over to NEGRO MASTERS!

RADICAL.—This is hardly likely to happen, for notwithstanding the Convention has done these things, the white men in that Convention will no sooner submit to social equality with the negroes than you will.

CONSERVATIVE.—You are mistaken again. The whole platform, upon which you and your party have been acting, is made up of the word EQUALITY. They sing it, pray it, and preach it, night and day.

RADICAL.—I know this, and admit it; but we mean POLITICAL "equality." You ought to make the distinction.

CONSERVATIVE.—Now, you are wrong again. The delegates in that Convention met the negro delegates, OUTSIDE of the Convention, on terms of SOCIAL equality.—The charge has been made, and NEVER DENIED, that CALVIN J. COWLES, the PRESIDENT of the Convention, went into an eating house, in the city of Raleigh, and called for two plates of oysters, and sat down at the same table, side-by-side, with A. H. Galloway, negro delegate from the county of New Hanover, and the two, Cowles (white) and Galloway (negro) ate together, entertaining each other, at the time, by familiar SOCIAL conversation. It has been charged, further, and never denied, that SAML. W. WATTS, delegate from Martin county, and Radical candidate for JUDGE in the 6th. Judicial Circuit, went into a grog-shop, in the city of Raleigh, with a notorious negro character, of that city, known as "Boots, the barber," and the two, Watts (white) and "Boots" (negro) drank together a "social glass," toasting each other's good looks!! Is not all this SOCIAL EQUALITY?

RADICAL.—Why, you astonish me! Do you tell me it is true that the PRESIDENT OF THE CONVENTION has been charged with associating in that manner with a nigger, and has not denied it? and that another white man of the Convention so acted, and that he was afterwards nominated for the office of Judge by the Republican Convention?

CONSERVATIVE—Yes, I know these charges have been made, and that they have not been denied. And these acts are not alone done by the men whose names have been mentioned—the members of the Convention, generally, acted towards these negroes in the Convention with a consideration equal to that with which they acted towards white men. I tell you this, and am prepared to prove it. Why, on the night before the day of the adjournment, these delegates, "in Convention assembled," resolved themselves into a general spree, into a regular "Corn-shucking frolic," and there, in the Hall of the House of Commons, of the Capitol of the State of North Carolina, this glorious old State, whose people have been famous, the world over, for their steady morals and correct deportment—there, in that Hall, sanctified by Stuart's living representation of the Father of his Country, and made immortal by the names of the sainted Gaston and those grand old statesmen of former days, Macon, Badger, Mangum and Morehead—there, in that once sacred place, was commenced the most disgraceful, the most infamous transaction, that ever occurred outside of a grog-shop. Members of the Convention, black and white, and black outsiders, formed a circle, joining hands, immediately in front of the Speaker's chair, and dancing to all sorts of tunes, different persons singing different tunes; among which the most popular were such as "Sal's in the garden siftin sand," "old John Brown's body is mouldering in the clay," "Come out of the wilderness," "Oh! Yallow gal can't you come out to-night," &c. Sir, it was a scene that made the heart sick, and the eyes weep.—Candidates for Judgeships were seen prominent among those creating a bedlam of the State Capitol, and delegates of the people were seen to stagger from the effects of whiskey and exhaustion!

This scene was kept up until a late hour at night and the departing spectator could see, here and there, in the lobbies and passages, on the benches, and on the floor, bodies of many of the revellers, white and black, in slumber, snoring away their stupor and weariness! God grant, in his mercy, that poor old North Carolina may never again be cursed by such a scene in her proud old Capitol—and that her people may be spared the infliction, upon them and their children, of such a curse as the establishment of the infamous Constitution which these wicked and unprincipled men would fasten upon them!

RADICAL.—Amen!!

EQUALITY OF RIGHTS.

Equality of rights for all races and classes of men, as held by the Radicals or Republicans, is a figment or chimera, held honestly by a few fanatics, but with the many it is a demagogical stroke of policy to add the black vote to the Radical party. It has neither reason, experience nor history to support it. It is a favorite dogma among the infidels of Europe and America; first broached and advocated by them, and finally embraced by the one idea religious fanatics of both continents.

And yet nearly all of the advocates of this fungus notion profess great horror at the idea of social equality between whites and blacks. They declare that social equality cannot take place; that human law cannot regulate social matters; that this matter must be left free and unembarrassed to work its own defeat; that society will protect itself against this mongrel monster.—Northern people are no judges of this subject. In the North, the number of blacks is too small, and the greater portion of the Northern free blacks are more degraded than our former slaves in the South; hence, there has been no danger of social equality in the North, for the reason that the political equality of the blacks in the North gives them no political power. But in the South, the possession of political rights in some of the States gives to the negroes all power, and, in others, the balance of power.

It will be universally the case in the South, that where political power is given to the negro, they will use it, and, in a few years, will use it with a vengeance. It has been a universal axiom in the South, "give a negro an inch, he will take an ell." The negroes understand political equality to mean all kinds of power. Give the negroes equality of political rights, and they readily claim that they are as good as other people, and that, therefore, they should ride in the same coach, eat at the same table, and sleep in the same bed with white people! They will either take this position, or, claiming to be better than white people, will brook no opposition, no impediment to their power, and will seek first the degradation of the white race, and then its extinction. Mark what we say, and let the white people rally to defeat the Constitution!

COL. THOMAS S. KENAN.—The nomination of Col. Thos. S. Kenan for Congress in the Second Congressional District is a deserved compliment to this gallant young gentleman, and will doubtless be received throughout the District with one accord of enthusiastic approval. We know Col. Kenan, and in every position in which he has been placed—in private and public life—he is a gentleman without reproach. We extend to him, personally, our hearty wishes for his success, and cannot show our regard for the people of that District better than by hoping he may defeat the Ohio adventurer, who seems to have found his true status in deceiving ignorant negroes and reached the height of his desires in becoming their political representative.—Wil. Journal.

DAVID SETTLE, }

MR. DAVIS' TRIAL TO BE AGAIN POSTPONED.—The Washington Star says that the fruther postponement of the trial of Mr. Davis will be officially announced within a day or two from 14th April to May 4th.—This change, it is stated, is rendered necessary by the fact that the new term of the court commences on May 4th, and the twenty days intervening between April 14th and May 4th is not considered sufficient time in which to try this case; hence the Government has made a further postponement of the trial.

FOR CONGRESS.

SAMUEL T. WILLIAMS,

Mass Meetings.

The State Executive Committee recommend the holding of Conservative Mass Meetings at the following times and places:

Raleigh,	Tuesday,	April	7
Statesville,	"	"	7
Greensboro',	Friday,	"	10
Wilmington,	"	"	10
Goldsboro',	Wednesday,	"	8
Salisbury,	"	"	8

Messrs. DOOLITTLE, HENDRICKS and others of U. S. Senate, and Messrs. BROOKS, ELDRIDGE and others of the House, have been invited to attend these meetings, and they are expected to come. It will be seen that the meetings are crowded, for the reason that these gentlemen can remain in the State but a few days.

Our friends in those places are requested to make the necessary arrangements for holding these meetings and further publication, &c. Popular speakers in this State are also expected to be present. Rally Conservatives!

WAKE COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Wake County Conservative Executive Committee are requested to meet in this city, on Monday next, (30th. inst.,) being the Monday of Wake Superior Court, for the transaction of highly important business.

The following gentlemen compose the Committee, viz: H O Parker, Chairman; Jeptha Horton, J L Separks, Peter Fleming, Alvis Sorrell, J P H Russ, R C Badger, M A Bledsoe, G H Alford, Berry Bagwell, Ruffin Holder, Reuben Fleming, J B Neathery, G H Fairbault, N J Whitaker, Wm Laws and J J L McCullers.

TO OUR WEEKLY SUBSCRIBERS.—Our list was increased so largely, last week, after the outside was printed off, that we did not have enough papers to send all our Weekly subscribers a copy. We tried to make up the defect by sending the Daily and Semi-Weekly to them. We hope to have enough, hereafter.

MANY THANKS to our excellent friend, T. M. Argo, Esq., of Chapel Hill, for a club of twenty eight subscribers to the Weekly Sentinel.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE our obligations to the young gentlemen composing the Committee of the Jefferson Society of the University of Virginia, for the compliment of an invitation to attend the "Intermediate Celebration" of the Society, on the evening of the 13th. prox.

WILMINGTON STAR.—Mr. William Calder's Editorial connection with this popular Journal has ceased. Mr. C. wielded a vigorous and sprightly pen. We wish him success in his new undertakings.

THE CONSERVATIVES of Lenoir had a grand rally at Kinston, last week. There was an immense crowd present. Glorious speeches were made by Henry R. Bryan, Esq., of Craven, and Geo. V. Strong, Esq., of Wayne.

THE CONSERVATIVES of the Sixth Congressional District will meet in Convention, in Statesville, on the 1st. of April, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

COL. E. D. HALL.—Our gallant and able candidate for Lieutenant-Governor spoke in Newbern on Saturday night. We regret that Monday's Journal of Commerce, which doubtless contained an account of the Col's. speech and reception, has failed to reach us.

SERGEANT BATES.—It will be seen, by the annexed paragraph, which we copy from the Columbia [S. C.] Phœnix, that Sergeant Bates will be in Raleigh about the 30th. or 31st. inst. Let him be tendered the hospitalities of the City and every individual courtesy.

"Sergeant Bates will leave Nickerson's Hotel, on Monday, 23d instant, at 10 o'clock, and arrive in Winnsboro' the same evening; Tuesday, the 24th, he will reach Chester; Wednesday the 25th, Fort Mills—stopping all night in each place; and Thursday, the 26th, at 3 o'clock, p. m., will reach Charlotte, N. C. From Charlotte he will walk to Greensboro', occupying about three days in the trip; will then take the cars for Raleigh, returning to Greensboro' by the same mode of conveyance; and from that point to Danville and Richmond, and thence to Washington, will "ride shank's mare."

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS! That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

"NOT THAT MAN."—Mr. John H. Gilmer, of Richmond, Va., who bravely exposed the registration frauds perpetrated there, and persistently insisted upon, at least, some mitigation of those outrages upon the white population, has published a card in the Richmond papers. The Gilmer alluded to in Bingham's bill is John A. Gilmer, formerly a representative in Congress from North Carolina, who now, with the hope of official emolument, has become a cringing supplicant at the feet of the leaders of the Radical revolution.—Nat. Int.

We regret to see that that usually well informed journal, the National Intelligencer, has been imposed upon—by some one, perhaps, who is not acquainted with John A. Gilmer, of Guilford, or his position. Mr. Gilmer, for one or two years past, has suffered much from bad health. During this period, he has taken no part in politics, it being necessary that he should avoid all sources of excitement. Mr. Gilmer is no Radical. He stands, where he has stood since the war closed, an earnest friend of peace, of the Union and of the Constitution. He is anxious for the restoration of peace and good will between the States and with the whole nation. Were he able to do so, we have no doubt his voice would be heard in the present canvass for constitutional liberty and against negro supremacy.

The name of Luke Blackmer, Esq., of Rowan, has been placed in the same category, by some of his personal friends, perhaps, which has led to the idea that he had become Radical or Republican. There is no good ground for placing either Mr. Gilmer or Mr. Blackmer among the Radicals. Unless we have been misinformed, both of them are Conservative men, and will vote against the odious Constitution.

GENERAL LITTLEFIELD(?)—Will our friends of the Sentinel or Carolinian, asks the Wilmington Journal, answer the following query from our correspondent:

QUERY.—Will the Journal please inform its readers whether the General Littlefield who is placarded among others to address the "Republicans" of New Hanover is the same General Littlefield who figured so largely in the Philadelphia lumber market in 1866-'67, making large contracts for the furnishing of lumber on the faith of mills and great timbered possessions on the Edisto, or somewhere else South, and who utterly failed to deliver any at all?

SOUTHERN PINT.

We know very little about Gen. Littlefield,—nothing except what we have heard. He denies that he is connected with the Wall Street brokers of New York, yet it is believed that he exerted himself much, as a lobby member, in getting the Convention to adopt the financial policy, by which the State taxes are to be increased eight-fold.—Since he was announced to speak at the Republican meetings, we learn he has gone North for some purpose; perhaps to replenish the Radical fund in this State, of which we learn he is the agent and distributor. He is said to be much interested in the Deep River mining region, and was the chief agent in manipulating the legislation of the Convention in regard to the Chatham Railroad and Deep River matters.—We judge he is a shrewd Yankee, good at demagoguery and management, and equally expert at making a speech, getting up a Club House, manœuvering as a lobby member, or singing "Old John Brown!"

CAMPAIGN TRACTS.—We beg to call the attention of our Conservative cotemporaries of the State to the excellent campaign Tracts nowdaily issued in the "Sentinel," and to be printed in tract form, under the direction of the Executive Committee. It is believed that it would greatly promote the cause, if our cotemporaries would publish them as they appear, or such as they can find room for. We shall issue thousands of them at once, in tract form, and, also, a large edition of the Constitution, for general distribution. But the means of the Committee are yet wholly insufficient to issue as large a number as is desirable. If, therefore, our cotemporaries will copy them, or get up something better of the same class, it will supply the lack of a large issue of tracts. They have been prepared, with care, at our request, by gentlemen well qualified, and they are pronounced to be able and powerful papers.

HOLDEN'S SOLILOQUY ABOUT NEGRO SUPPORT.

(HUDIBRASTICALLY RENDERED.)

"Success—the mark no mortal wit
Or surest hand can always hit;
For whatsoe'er we perpetrate
We do but row—we're steered by Fate
Great actions are not always true sons
Of great and mighty resolutions.
Honor is like a widow, won,
With brisk attempt and putting on—
With entering manfully and urging,
Not slow approaches like a virgin.
As beards, the nearer that they tend
To earth still grow more reverend;
As cannons shoot the higher pitches
The lower we let down their breeches;
I'll make this low dejected fate
Advance me to a greater height."

A DESPERATE NEGRO.—At Helena, Ark., Thursday, Bart. Turner, sheriff, attempted to arrest a negro who had recently killed three negroes in an adjoining county. The negro drew a revolver and shot Turner through the body, knocking him off his mule, which the negro mounted, and fled to the hills, where he was pursued by a posse. On their attempt to arrest him, he fired, wounding William Sebastian. The negro was held at bay until a squad of soldiers arrived, who fired upon him wounding him severely. He was captured and carried to Helena. None of the wounded were dead at the last account.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

OLD CHATHAM "RIGHT SIDE UP!"—HON. JOHN KERR.

PITTSBORO, N. C., March 18, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—It is with no small amount of pride that I communicate to you the intelligence that the White Man's cause is fast gaining in this county, but my pride knows no limit when I contemplate the good time that we had on yesterday, (Tuesday of our Superior Court,) in the Court House, and afterward in the Academy grove.

Immediately after the adjourning of the morning session of the court, a White Man's meeting was organized—Maj. Scott in the chair—for the purpose of nominating suitable gentlemen to fill the county offices, and to represent the people of Chatham in the next Legislature.

The chair appointed a committee for that purpose, and, a few moments after the committee had retired, that gallant young champion of the White Man's cause in Chatham, H. A. London, jr., was loudly called for, and came forward in reply to the call. I can not undertake to do him justice by giving a synopsis of his very eloquent effort, and will simply say that it was universally agreed to be a most happy, well tempered and telling speech; and just here I will say that he has, as have the other gentlemen of the county canvassers, done good work for our cause.

When Mr. London was through, it was announced that Judge Kerr would address the people, at the Academy Grove.

The Committee on nominations reported the following names:

For Probate Judge—H. A. London, Sr.
For County Court Clerk—R. C. Cotten.
For Superior Court Clerk—John A. Thompson.
For the Senate—R. B. Paschal.
For the Commons—Col. Jas. P. Rives and R. W. York.

On motion, the Chair appointed Gen. W. P. Taylor, W. S. Garrett, J. W. Hatch, Capt. Jno. A. Pugh and Atlas Riggsbee an Executive Committee for the county.

Also, on motion, H. C. Horton, W. S. Garrett, Dr. E. H. Ward, Dr. G. H. Albright, W. F. Strond and L. J. Edwards were appointed delegates to the District Nominating Meeting, to be held in Greensboro', on the 25th inst.

Business being through with, and all anxious to hear our distinguished fellow citizen, Judge Kerr, the meeting adjourned, and all the white men and some negroes, despite the efforts of the creature, McDonald, to keep them away, repaired to the grove with all eagerness to hear what the Judge had to say.

Messrs. Editors, we all know John Kerr, and have ever considered him one of Carolina's brightest ornaments,—certainly one of her first and most eloquent orators,—but I must say that I believe that his entire audience, and it was a very large one, was agreeably surprised with his most happy effort. His argument was put in the simplest and purest English, his bursts of eloquence were most fervid, and his denunciation was the most scathing that any creatures ever writhed under. He enchained his audience most closely, and was frequently greeted with loud applause, and urged to go on after he had spoken for nearly three hours.

The speech has done us much good.—Many a glittering tear could be seen coursing its way over bronzed cheeks at certain stages of his speech, and, again, peals of laughter would burst forth at his wit.—Judge Kerr spoke some wholesome words to the colored men present, and made their situation plain enough for a child to understand. It was really amusing, as 'twas provoking, to witness Mac's efforts to get a crowd into the Court House to hear him say that he was an independent candidate for Congress in this District; but some white man remarked, "Judge Kerr is speaking, boys, let's go and hear him," and immediately all but a very few "nigs," and, well you know who they were, left Mac thundering away, and trying to make Dosey's way, in Chatham, as hard as possible; and he seems to think the "Rads" will prefer the "lover of candy" to a Yank.

The sky brightens, and the organization goes bravely on. Each day brings us the welcome intelligence of the withdrawal of good men from the secret Leagues, and they say that their intense love for the Union prompts them to do it, and they intend to give all their support in the future to the Conservative party, as the only hope of the restoration of the Union. They are satisfied that if the policy of the Radicals is adopted, another war, more bloody than the first, will ensue.

Old Chatham is alive to her duty, and her sons will go to the polls and vote for the white man, when the opportunity is afforded them.

G.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR THE SUBMISSION OF THE CONSTITUTION TO THE PEOPLE, AND THE ELECTION OF CERTAIN OFFICERS.

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That the Constitution adopted by this Convention be submitted for ratification, to the voters of this State, registered and qualified, as provided by the acts of Congress, known as the Reconstruction Laws, on the 21st, 22d and 23rd of April, 1868. The vote on said Constitution shall be "For the Constitution" and "Against the Convention." The said election shall be held at the places and under the regulations to be prescribed by the Commanding General of this military district, and the return made to him as directed by law.

SEC. 2. An election shall be held at the same time and place as the ratification of the Constitution, for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers, who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution.

SEC. 3. An election for members of the United States Congress shall be held in each Congressional District, as now established, at the same time and places as the election for ratification of the Constitution. Said election shall be conducted by the same persons and under the same regulations as before mentioned in this ordinance. The returns shall be made to the President of this Convention, who shall give the persons chosen certificates of election.

SEC. 4. The Commanding General of this Military District is requested to enforce this ordinance.

SEC. 5 The President of the Convention is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the Commanding General of this Military District.

Ratified this 17th day of March, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

(Signed,) CALVIN J. COWLES,
President of the Constitutional Convention of North Carolina.

WHAT GEN. HANCOCK SAYS.—Gen. Hancock is in Washington. He says he never saw Jeff. Davis but once in his life, and that was not in New Orleans; and that he has appointed only white men to office, the best of both parties; that the result of the election on the Constitution is doubtful; that things generally look well in his district; and that he supposes he was summoned to Washington to consult as to matters in that district.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—THE REPLICATION.

WASHINGTON, March 24, M.

Buchanan has been assigned to duty under Brevet rank, which entitles him to command the Fifth District, pending Hancock's absence.

The following is the general replication to the President's answer, agreed upon by the Board of Managers:

"The House, having considered the answer and plea, reply that he is guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors in manner and form as charged, anything in his answer to the contrary notwithstanding. The House is ready to make good, when the Senate is ready to hear."

The House adopted the replication—113 to 36.

BY THE CABLE.

The King of Prussia, in opening Parliament, said: "The expatriation treaty will knit more closely the nations allied by trade and race."

[Our Washington telegram states that the Radicals denounce the King of Prussia as a Copperhead, for using the word "race," as above.]

RELIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

NEW YORK, March 24, M.

The Episcopal Clergy and Laity here have had a large meeting, to devise relief for their Southern brethren. Bishop Potter spoke, and a Committee was appointed.

WASHINGTON, March 24, P. M.

SENATE.—The South Carolina Convention asks a loan for educational purposes.

A bill regulating presentation of bills to the President passed.

At the usual hour, impeachment began. The Journal was read and the replication submitted.

Judge Chase said that business was in order.

Mr. Johnson's motion, allowing the President ten days for preparation, was considered.

Sumner submitted a substitute that the trial proceed.

Edmonds moved that the Senate retire. Sumner, Howard, and others, cried: no! no!

Mr. Conkling called the yeas and nays on retiring, with the following result:

YEAS.—Anthony, Bayard, Buckalew, Corbett, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Edwards, Fessenden, Fowler, Frelinghuysen, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Howe, Johnson, McCreery, Morrill, of Maine, Morrill, of Vermont, Morton, Norton, Patterson, of New Hampshire, Patterson, of Tennessee, Saulsbury, Sprague, Van Winkle, Vickers, Willey and Williams—29.

NAYS.—Cameron, Cattell, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Cragin, Drake, Ferry, Harlan, Howard, Morgan, Nye, Ramsay, Ross, Sherman, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Trumbull, Wilson and Yates—23.

The Senate remained out two hours, and ordered the trial to commence on Monday next, to which day the Court adjourned.

The Senate went into Executive session and adjourned.

HOUSE.—Business unimportant.

After the adoption of the replication, Spalding thought it was too meagre and warned the Managers against being entrapped by the President's counsel.

Boutwell had no apprehension.

Bingham contended that demurrer, on the part of the President, was not admissible.

After the adoption of the replication, the House proceeded to the Senate.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 24, P. M.

In the election case from Ohio, the Committee will report in favor of Delano, Radical, and ousting Morgan.

The impeachment proceedings to-day were very tame.

The negroes are still entirely excluded from the galleries. The public proceedings occupied half an hour before, and ten minutes after, the two hours' private session.

In private session, on Conkling's amendment, reducing the time to Monday next; the vote was 28 to 24. The Republicans voting for more time were Anthony, Corbitt, Edmonds, Fessenden, Fowler, Frelinghuysen, Grimes, Henderson, Norton, Sherman, Sprague, Trumbull and Van Winkle.

The Supreme Court decided that deposits of a Savings Bank, though invested in Federal securities, are subject to State tax.

The veto of the Bill muzzling the Supreme Court was considered in the Cabinet, to-day.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, March 24, P. M.

Disfranchisement was again taken up and the amendment to disfranchise all who voted for secession candidates to the Seceding Convention, was indefinitely postponed.

The Iron-clad oath for all office-holders was adopted,—40 to 22.

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

THE VOTE upon the new Constitution will be taken the 21st., 22nd. and 23d. of April. Be sure and VOTE AGAINST IT.

NEGRO MILITIA IN TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, March 20.

McAdam, a convict recently pardoned out of the State prison, to which he had been sentenced by the Circuit Court of Franklin county for committing a rape on his mother-in-law, is raising a company of negro militia in that county, having been commissioned captain by the State authorities.

THE CANVASS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—"The combat deepens" in North Carolina, and the spirit animates our friends there which ruled the spirit of the Army of Northern Virginia in its palmy and victorious days.

If the Freedmen of that State still maintain the old and praiseworthy contempt for mean white men which Holden attributes to them, after the recent ventilation of that person's record they can't feel otherwise for him.

They cannot, it is true, prevent him from having his eye on the Gubernatorial chair—but it strikes us that a proper respect for themselves would make them look to it that he shall never have anything else on it.

There is not a corn-field hand in the State who will not be disgraced if its Governor should be the meanest white man in it.—Pet. Index.

A Radical Judge in a Pennsylvania court decided that white people have a clear right to exclude darkies from seats in cars, at theatres, rooms in hotels, &c.

A word in your ear, cuffee. These people want you to help make a Republican heaven of this country, and keep you outside of it.—They say you can't go to Congress either.—Isn't it remarkable how these cooks vary their sauce as the gander or the goose happens to be served before them.—Petersburg Index.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell,
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel,	for one year,	$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel,	for one year,	4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
